

1st ERPS Video Competition (September 2023)

With our very first YouTube video competition the European Recorder Players Society would like to make our instrument and the participant's videos go viral! Any artistic combination of visuals, sound and/or recorder-related information (spoken, played or visualised in any way) is possible. We want to see your creativity and personal relationship to the recorder, and we aim that participants gain popularity and experience in our digital world.
